

Page 348-Paragraph 37, line 8; read:
rock has a least depth of 20.4 feet. Mariners are urged to ...
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 38, read:
Prolewy Rock, reported to actually be a pair of rocks, is 220 yards N of the middle of the N side of Rapids Island and barely submerged at the lowest tides. Standing waves are said to form over them when strong currents are running near low water. Wayanda Ledge, extends from 60 yards N of Prolewy Rock right up to the S edge of the maintained channel; the NNE side of the ledge is marked by a buoy.
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 39, line 1; read:
Sergius Narrows Light 9 (57°24'28"N., 135°37'52"W.),
...
(CL 1618/03; LL/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 40, lines 2-3; read:
Midway Rock has a least depth of 1.7 fathoms and is marked by a lighted buoy ...
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 42, line 6; read:
Vessels should not go inshore of the range given to avoid ...
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 43, line 5; read:
Rock, about 7 feet high, is midway between Big Island ...
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 44, lines 5-7; read:
Big Island in 10 to 12 fathoms, sticky mud and broken shells bottom. An islet, about 10 feet high, is 80 yards SE of Big Island, and a kelp-marked rock extends 80 yards SE of the islet.
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 46, line 2; read:
of Middle Point. A ledge, bare at half tide and marked by ...
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 48, lines 2-3; read:
230 yards off a bight on the E side of Big Rose Island. A light is 370 yards to the N.
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 49, line 2; read:
yards NW of Little Rose Island and 440 yards from the ...
(CL 1618/03)

Page 348-Paragraph 51, lines 2-4; read:
Island. Anchorage for small craft is available throughout the cove.
(CL 1618/03)

Page 349-Paragraph 57, read:
Dolph Rock, which bares at low tides, is about 0.8 mile off the W shore at the entrance to Ushk Bay and 1.2 miles W of Hoggatt Island.
(CL 1618/03)