United States Coast Guard Academy Chaplain Kyle Fauntleroy offers the blessing Friday, May 28, 2010 for a wreath to be deployed next month by the Coast Guard International Ice Patrol to remember the sacrifices and dedication of the Coast Guard's WWII Greenland Patrol. The Greenland Patrol patrolled the north Atlantic waters off Greenland from 1940 to 1945. The wreath will be deployed from an Ice Patrol C-130 aircraft over the north Atlantic in the area of the patrolled waters during a routing iceberg reconnaissance in June.
