ROUTEING OF SHIPS

Reporting Recommendation for the Minches

- 1 Resolution A.768(18) sets out a number of routeing measures for sea areas around the United Kingdom. Routeing measures are detailed in paragraph 3.1 thereof, while associated reporting recommendations are given in paragraphs 3.2 and 3.3.
- 2 A maritime traffic survey in the Minches conducted by the United Kingdom Government has indicated that not all ships report their positions to the Coastguard Station at Stornoway.
- 3 Administrations are urged to make every effort to encourage Masters and watchkeeping officers of ships under their flag to comply with the reporting recommendations set out in paragraphs 3.2 and 3.3 of resolution A.768(18).
